MLQ NOTES:

Since our last meeting on April 17, we've had a lot happening: FIT Family Night; the Totally Courageous Basketball assemblies that we sponsored; the Bertucci's 5th grade fundraiser; Night of Innovation; an absolutely fabulous Teacher Appreciation Week; and our first-ever Mays Day, which was a HUGE success, thanks to the hard work of Irene and Janell, our co-chairs, Monica [and Lenore] (who headed up the silent auction), Tami (who brought us another Scholastic Book Fair), Kelly, and a whole host of others who came together to make this an event that people are still talking about.

We're now closing in on the end of our first school year, and as far as events are concerned, the list is now a lot shorter: Guys Night Out (this Thursday from 5:30-8:00); the 5th grade trip; graduation. The last full day of school is four weeks from today.

As I look back over the past 12 months or so, starting with that June 11 organizational meeting at West Towson ES, I'm amazed not just at how much we've accomplished together but by the way we've come together as a community. You have all put so much time and energy into making this a wonderful year, starting with those planning meetings back in the summer and Sneak a Peek at Your Seat and the Teacher Breakfast the first day of school, through our first very simple but totally fun school picnic, our first Scholastic Book Fair, our first spiritwear sales; our first Fit Family Night, our first Teacher Appreciation Week; our first Mays Day. To say nothing of all of the ongoing activities begun during the year: The sunshine that has been continuously spread, the assemblies that have been sponsored, the Early Bird Gym sessions that have been started, the constant support for our teachers and staff – all of which has helped make this a wonderful school for our children.

But the best part of it all is that we're really not Pot Spring and Pinewood and Warren and Padonia – and obscure places like Anne Arundel County (or North Carolina) - anymore. We have become "Mays Chapel." And by that measure, which is the most important one in my book, we have been wildly successful.

It's truly been an honor to serve as your president this past year. I know that we leave some things undone (such as our website – but really, we'll get to that) and there were plenty of great ideas for things that we deferred to next year. Rome wasn't built in a day. But I look forward to working with Kelly and all of you as we continue to move Mays Chapel forward.

Thank you – all of you – for your support of what we've done this year. I can't tell you how much I've enjoyed this job. It really is the best job in the world.
